Barcelonette

Una mezcla única entre el refinamiento
Francés y el colorido Mexicano.

Barcelonette es un pueblo situado en los Alpes franceses con una historia muy particular, en el siglo XIX la mayoría de sus habitantes emigraron a México, llevando consigo muchas influencias francesas y regresaron con influencias mexicanas. Hoy en día algunos la llaman la ciudad francesa de México.

Esta colección está pensada como una alternativa a las famosas sillas bistro francesas para exterior.

(EN) Barcelonette is inspired by a charming village in the French Alps, where history and culture blend beautifully. In the 19th century, many of its inhabitants emigrated to Mexico and later returned with vibrant Mexican influences, earning it the nickname "Mexico's French city."

This collection reimagines the classic French bistro chair, offering a refined yet colorful alternative that adds timeless charm and personality to outdoor spaces.
